If a father wishes to give his son a legacy that will endure while life exists, let him send him to an institution where he can obtain a practical education, and he will have the satisfaction of knowing that he has given him what is better than houses, lands and farms, or even gold or silver. These things may take wings and suddenly fly away; but this knowledge will last while life and reason exist.—Horace Mann.

THE NORMAL COURSE.

The design of the Normal Schools is to aid young men and women in their special preparation for teaching, and to train them to become competent teachers for the public schools of the State. With this end in view the student must have high ideals of moral character. He must become so strong that these ideals are to him in life real, true characters after which he models his own.

The student must be aided in forming good habits of thought and study. To investigate for himself he must become self-reliant.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The course of study has been improved from time to time to keep pace with the requirements of the schools which are to be supplied with teachers. This course requires for its completion four years. The work of the last year has to do chiefly with studies relating to the profession of teaching. At the same time a course of reading on professional subjects, supplementary to the instruction received in the classroom, is required.

Each member of the fourth year class is required to do one hour of actual teaching, per week, in the classes of the school. During this year the studies taught in the public schools are reviewed and methods of teaching them brought to the attention of the students.

ADMISSION TO THE COURSE.

No applicant for appointment shall be appointed by County Superintendent unless he or she be of good moral character, and shall sustain a good examination in reading, spelling, elementary arithmetic, geography and elementary English grammar. Said examination may be made either by the County Superintendent or the Principal of the school which the applicant desires to attend.

No student should enter upon this course until thoroughly prepared. Lack of preparation will cause unsatisfactory work, slow progress and loss of interest.

APPOINTMENT.

Applications for appointment to the Normal Department of the State Normal Schools shall be made to the Superintendent of Free Schools of the county in which the applicant resides ; and said Superintendent shall elect such number as may be entitled to the privileges of the Normal School in his county, subject to the approval of the State Superintendent of Free Schools.

As far as practicable, males and females shall be selected in equal proportion. Male pupils must not be less than fourteen, and female not less than thirteen years of age.

GRADUATION.

The Board of Regents will confer upon those who complete the Senior Year, with an average standing of 85 per cent, and not below 75 per cent on any one branch, a Normal Diploma, with the title of Normal Graduate. Provided, No one shall be graduated who has not attended at least one full year, which shall be the last or next to the last year of the course.

Pupils applying for Normal Diplomas are examined two weeks before commencement.

The rates of tuition for pay students shall be as follows :

Junior Normal Course, per year.....	$20.00
Middle or Senior Normal Course, per year.....	20.00
Incidental expenses for each student, per session or fraction thereof.....	1.50

Students who have appointments from superintendents pay no tuition.

NORMAL DIPLOMAS.

To receive a Normal Diploma the student must complete the full Normal Course, and must have a standing of 85 per cent. These diplomas are equivalent to number one certificates after the holder has taught three years under a number one county certificate. The State Board of Examiners issues two classes of certificates : first class for twelve years, second class for six years. "The second class certificate shall be issued, upon application, without examination, to the graduates of the State Normal School and its branches, and of the State University, when said graduates shall have presented to the Board satisfactory evidence that they have taught successfully three years in the State under a number one county certificate ; two of said three years shall immediately precede the application for such certificate." Such certificate shall be equivalent to a number one county certificate granted by a County Board of Examiners, and shall be valid in any school district in the State.

Academic Department.

This department was added by the Board of Regents in 1885, and is intended to prepare students for a regular college course and to fit them to enter the State University of West Virginia.

The studies of this department may be taken as a special course, or they may be carried along with the Normal Course when they do not interfere with it. Students who pursue the studies in this course find themselves better prepared from the mental training received to do the work of the lower schools.

ADMISSION.

Students are admitted to this in same manner as to the Normal course.

COURSES.

The course requires three years for its completion. Students can pursue both courses at the same time. Those students who have taken the last year of the Normal in connection with this have found themselves well prepared to enter upon the Metaphysical Course of our colleges and universities.

No student falling below a class standing (including examinations) of eighty-five per cent shall be entitled to a diploma.

The student can pursue such studies as will admit him to the different courses at the University of West Virginia.

GRADUATION.

The State Superintendent of Free Schools is authorized to issue to the student completing this course a diploma, which will be received at the State University as equivalent to its Preparatory Course.

STUDIO

Scope of Studies.

PSYCHOLOGY.

This branch of study receives special attention in the fourth year. The student by the aid of his text book makes himself acquainted with the operations of the mind. He is taught and encouraged to pursue the study in a practical manner by observing those about him. Especially is he urged to study the functions of the minds of children.

PEDAGOGY.

This work reviews in a rapid manner the functions of the mind; thus the principles which govern good teaching are taught; the student is made to put to practice the knowledge gained. This exercise gives him confidence when he enters the school-room.

HISTORY OF EDUCATION.

Here are studied the educational systems of the ancients and moderns. As these different systems are studied the student is asked to note carefully their effect in forming our own. Being thoroughly acquainted with the systems of education of the past the student is prepared to study ours intelligently.

LITERATURE.

The chief aim is to give the student some knowledge of our parent language, to acquaint him with the more important literary works of England and America in order that he may be prepared for further study and enabled to make use of the master-pieces in his public school work. Some attention is also given to library formation, but special care is taken to give the student skill in the interpretation of thought and to foster in him a love and appreciation for the noble, the pure, the beautiful, and the good. Yet, in order to bring about the desired results, neither the knowledge contained nor the form is neglected. The work done in Literature may be classed under four heads: History, Biography, master-pieces read in class, and master-pieces read and reported in class. The following productions are studied and read in class: In English Literature, Macbeth, Burke's Speech on Conciliation with America, Macaulay's Essays on Milton and Addison, Rime of the Ancient Mariner, Intimations of Immortality, Dream of Fair Women, Essay on Burns, De Coverley Papers, Alexander's Feast ; in American Literature, Rip Van Winkle, Vision of Sir Launfal, American Scholar, Commemoration Ode, Evangeline, Snow Bound, Thanatopsis, Present Crisis.

Reading upon which the students report in class : Paradise Lost (Books 1 and 2), Essay on Man, The Desereted Village, The Princess, In Memoriam, Lady of the Lake, Eve of St. Agnes, Prometheus Unbound, Lalla Rookh, Aurora Leigh, Culprit Fay, Hiawatha, Self-Reliance, Bigelow Papers, The Last Leaf, &c.

LATIN AND GREEK.

The training in this department is intended to give thorough preparation for entrance upon the work in Latin and Greek of West Virginia University, and other institutions of the same rank. A constant effort is made to point out to the student the close relation existing between these languages and his mother tongue, with the conviction that some knowledge of Latin and Greek is essential to an intelligent appreciation of English. A thorough mastery of declensions, conjugations and the common principles of syntax is insisted upon. In translation, an accurate literal rendering is first required, followed by a clear expression of the author's thought in good, idiomatic English, varying as little as possible from the form of expression in the original.

PHYSIOLOGY AND ZOOLOGY.

The pupil in studying the elements of Anatomy, Physiology and Hygiene becomes familiar with the structure of the human body, the function of its various organs, and the laws of health by whose observance these organs and functions may be kept in their normal condition. This work is closely followed by that in Zoology, in which a comparative study of function and organ teaches many new truths and fixes more firmly in mind those already apprehended. Text-book work in both classes is supplemented by the use of a good microscope, a valuable collection of specimens, and additional specimens daily brought in by students. During the past few years a stereopticon, and a set of slides prepared by one of S. C.'s recent graduates now engaged in the study of medicine, have been of particular interest. The greatest importance is attached to the formation of accurate habits of observation.

MATHEMATICS.

This course prepares the student for a regular college course, either at the West Virginia University, or any of the leading colleges.

In Arithmetic particular attention is paid to the analysis and thorough understanding of the principles and reasons for each process. The student is thus made independent of the text book and its rules.

In Algebra and Geometry thorough work is required. The student is prepared to teach these branches in our schools, or to take up the higher mathematics in our colleges.

The course in Book-keeping is made as thorough and complete as the time will allow, the idea being to make the student a practical book-keeper, rather than a theoretical one.

PHYSICS AND CHEMISTRY.

The course in Physics and Chemistry consists in the close study of the text books, supplemented by experiments and demonstrations. The laboratory is supplied with all physical and chemical apparatus necessary for the illustrations and demonstrations found in the elementary texts on these subjects.

PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY.

The bare statement of unexplained truths often takes little hold upon the immature mind. From a realization of this fact, the instructor in Physical Geography teaches the student not merely to memorize, but to trace the causes and results of the phenomena so familiar to our everyday experience, as well as of those more obscure, but no less significant.

HISTORY.

The object of the work in this department is to familiarize the student with the principal facts of history, to find causes that produce certain results, to trace the evolution of institutions and the influence of men and measures; also to create in the student a desire and a love for historical investigation, to enable him carefully and critically to study both sides of any question, and by means of the reading-room literature to acquaint him with current events which will become a part of history. The work is pursued by class-room recitations from the text-book, by investigation in the library upon topics assigned for special study and by debate.

RHETORIC.

In this course the work begins with an analytical study of the sentence, and about it as a unit of style is developed the paragraph and later the whole composition. The student is encouraged to express his ideas in a correct form and in the clearest English that is most expressive of his individuality; also to recognize and practice the different forms of discourse.

BOTANY.

The purpose of this work is not merely to find the names of flowers, but it offers the best opportunity for the cultivation of the student's powers of observation, and inspires in him an interest in the flora around him by familiarizing him with the seed and germination, root, stem, buds, leaves, inflorescence, plant-cell and protoplasm.

A typical flower is studied with reference to plan, structure, fertilization and conditions for growth; also some cryptogamous plants are taken into consideration.

In this work, each student is required to collect, analyze, and mount twenty specimens, outside of either class-room or field work, and he is led to study plants in their habitats.

READING COURSE.

The design of the Reading Course is not only to bring before the student some of our best and most interesting literature, but also to teach him to read carefully and closely, enable him to recognize merit, and to cultivate in him a taste for the best authors.

Each class in this course is under the personal supervision of a member of the Faculty, and from time to time tests, involving some knowledge of the author's life, rank, works, material and manner of dealing with it, are given to find what the student has gained from the work, and to assist him in concentrating his material in composition.

The productions for critical study, being given in connection with the Literature course, afford ample opportunity for the student to read closely, discuss carefully, and to develop his own originality and individuality in criticism and literary invention.

Department of Elocution.

During the spring term instruction in this important branch is offered the students of the College. For the past three years the work has been in the hands of Miss Nellie Stowe Pentecost, of Allegheny, an accomplished elocutionist and a graduate of one of the best schools of oratory.

The importance of this training can hardly be over-estimated. To those preparing to teach, it is of especial value in qualifying them to teach reading, while at the same time their own trained voices become a source of inspiration to the children under their care. Careful attention is given to correct breathing, voice formation and control, articulation, pitch and inflection.

During the spring of 1899 seventeen regular pupils availed themselves of the opportunities thus offered, while almost as many received training on special productions.

Music Department.

In this department instruction is given in vocal and instrumental music.

Superior advantages are offered in these branches, progressive and practical methods being employed and every facility offered to aid the student in the work.

In music such technical exercises are given as will develop and strengthen the fingers and insure a correct and clean execution, while the studies and compositions are carefully selected with a view to awakening and stimulating good taste in the pupil.

Since no successful advancement can be made until the pupil is well grounded in first principles, special attention is given to elementary instruction and the constant aim is to lead the pupil by thorough and systematic instruction to an understanding and appreciation of the best music and the proper execution of the same.

Studies are selected which are best adapted to the individual needs of the pupils. For beginners, Gurlette and the Standard Grade system, containing selections from the most learned composers, are chiefly used for advanced students, Czerney, Bach, Kullaks, Cramer and other Old Masters. Careful attention is given to finger and wrist work.

In vocal music the works of Bassini, Brodogni and Concone are used with a view to correct breathing, the cultivation and strengthening of the voice.

Pupils' Recitals are held from time to time throughout the year, two of a high order of excellence having been given during the winter of '98 and '99.

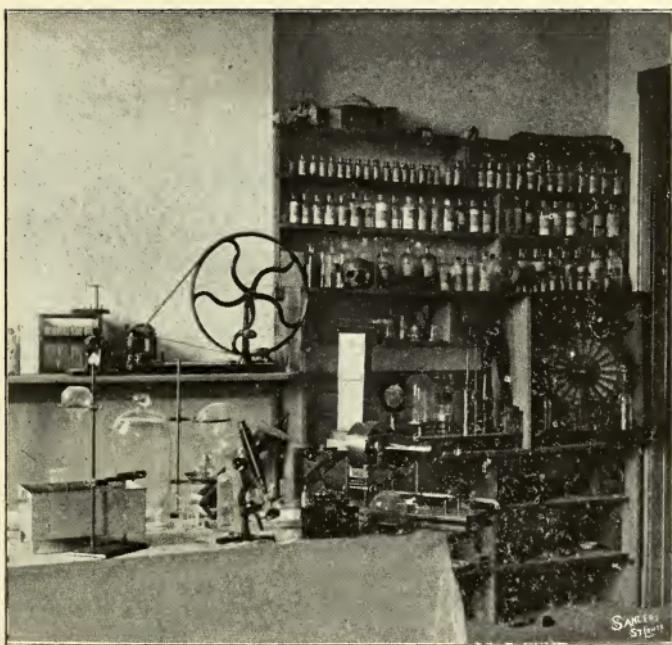

The entire school has the privilege of training in chorus work free of charge every Friday afternoon. From this, pupils derive much benefit, learning choruses from classic composers, such as Mendelssohn, Abt and Donizetti.

A CORNER OF THE LABORATORY.

The Faculty will allow students to board only at such places as they shall deem proper.

The comfort and welfare of the student is considered.

Persons with whom students board will carry out such instructions as the Faculty may from time to time consider necessary for the good government of the students.

Crowding a large number of students into small rooms, or the overcrowding of large rooms, will not be allowed. The health of the student must be considered.

Boarding, room, fuel, light, &c., can be obtained in the country at $10 per calendar month, or in town at from $10 to $12 per month—two persons occupying one room. Where the student wishes to occupy a room alone, $12 to $15 is asked.

Washing costs from $1 per month up to the prices of city laundries. Laundries are within easy reach.

It is best for new students to write the Principal in regard to boarding. A failure to comply with this request oftentimes causes unnecessary trouble. New students should, upon arrival, report to the Principal.

GENERAL RULES.

The student will be assigned the studies of one class, and will be allowed only in special cases to take a study in advance when there is in his class or any preceding class a study with which he is not already familiar.

When studies have once been assigned a student, they will stand until changed or modified by the Principal. Each student shall have at least three studies.

All fees must be paid per term in advance, and no abatement of tuition will be made for a fraction of a month or for absence, except in cases of illness extending over a month, or for suspension or expulsion.

Pupils entering after the beginning of any term or session shall pay only for the remainder of said term or session, pro rata at the above rates.

Pupils shall attend all required examinations of the year, and no pupil shall be permitted to advance without the said examination and without attaining a standing of eighty-five per cent, including class standing and examination.

These examinations shall be in writing, or partly written and partly oral, and shall be conducted by the instructor in charge, under the supervision of the Principal.

Pupils applying for Normal Diplomas shall be examined two weeks before commencement.

ORIGIN OF THE SCHOOL.

Shepherd College was opened as a "Classical and Scientific School," September, 1871.

February 27, 1872, the Legislature passed an act establishing in the College a "Branch State Normal School." This Normal Department was organized by the Regents, November 21, 1872; but owing to changes made in the law the work did not successfully begin until September, 1873.

For twenty-eight years the school has been an important factor in the education of the youth of the Eastern Panhandle and adjoining counties, and closes the session of ninety-eight and nine with bright prospects for the future.

LOCATION.

Shepherdstown, the oldest town in West Virginia, known in the early history of the State as New Mecklenberg, is situated on the right bank of the Potomac River. It is ten miles from Martinsburg and the same distance from Harper's Ferry, and has a population of about 1,600.

The Norfolk & Western Railway passes through the town and makes connection with the main line of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad at Shenandoah Junction, six miles south of Shepherdstown.

Mountains and rivers make the scenery of the surrounding country grand and picturesque. Various places of historic interest are within a radius of a few miles from town. From the tower of the school building may be seen several of the monuments on the Antietam Battlefield.

BUILDINGS AND EQUIPMENTS.

The demand for a larger and more convenient building for Shepherd College was met recently by the State, by an appropriation of $15,000. A substantial brick edifice has been erected, and is now in use. Its large class-rooms and modern conveniences greatly increase the facilities for good work.

The rooms have all been supplied with the latest modern furniture. The building is heated throughout by steam. Every comfort is offered to the student and everything about the building appeals to him to use his time well.

The old building, with its attractive music-rooms and large halls, is used in a part of the work of the school, thus happily blending old associations with new. It is expected that the society halls will soon be provided with new furniture. A still stronger incentive to energetic work will thus be offered, and the spirit of healthy rivalry already existing between the two literary societies will be strengthened.

The school is in possession of a fine library of carefully selected books, continually increasing. The reading-room, an attractive and comfortable apartment, is abundantly supplied with the best literature of the day. Every opportunity is given the student to use these valuable aids to education.

The laboratory is equipped with modern chemical and physical apparatus, well adapted to supplement instruction in the scientific department. This equipment is being increased each year. During the present year a stereopticon has been added. The nucleus has been formed of a collection of specimens designed to stimulate interest in scientific study.

THE WORK OF THE NORMAL.

The design of the Normal School is to prepare thorough, practical, conscientious teachers for the State, and to send students to higher institutions of learning.

This is done :

1. By giving thorough instruction in all the branches taught in the public schools of the State.
2. By giving instruction in the theory and practice of teaching.
3. By giving instruction in Ancient and Modern Languages, the Sciences, and Higher Mathematics.

Satisfactory evidence of the success of this work is found in the fact that a majority of the schools of this section are taught by Normal graduates who have proven themselves eminently qualified for their high calling, while a large number of our academic students have taken high standing in the colleges and universities of the land.

MORAL CULTURE.

The school is a State institution, therefore non-sectarian. Students are required to attend devotional exercises held each morning in Chapel Hall. The school is greatly indebted to the ministers of the town for their kindness in frequently conducting these exercises.

There are seven churches in the town, to all of whose services students are cordially welcomed.

Great care is taken in the selection of boarding houses. A good moral atmosphere is a requisite, and only those places that meet this requirement are recommended. The names of new students are given at once to the pastors of the churches with which they are affiliated.

GOVERNMENT.

Self-government, strengthened and directed by older and wiser heads, is the government of the school.

Students are required to obey the rules and regulations of the school and conduct themselves under all circumstances as ladies and gentlemen, but they are to do these things from a sense of right, rather than from a feeling of obligation. The aim is to inculcate principles of right living and self-control, and thereby develop the true man and woman.

EXAMINATIONS.

Examinations, either written or oral, are held at the close of each term, and are conducted by the teachers in charge of respective studies. Willful absence from examinations is not tolerated, and no student is advanced unless he has passed a satisfactory test on all the branches of his grade.

Reports of the conduct, progress and attendance of the students are sent each term to the parents or guardians, and they are requested to report to the Principal after a careful examination of the standing of the student. If progress is not satisfactory, reports are sent to the parents more frequently and they are asked to co-operate with the Faculty in having it improved. Monthly grades are posted on the bulletin.

LITERARY WORK.

The Parthenian and Ciceronian Literary Societies afford special advantages in Composition, Reading, Declamation, Oration, Debate and Parliamentary Ruling.

These are all required in the regular course, and it is the duty of each student upon entering school to become an active member in one of the societies. The exercises are under the personal direction of the Faculty. A contest in literary work between the societies is now one of the most attractive features of Commencement Week.

Rare advantages in practical literary work are given by the publication of the "Shepherd College Picket," a monthly paper edited by the school.

EXTEMPORANEOUS SPEAKING SOCIETY.

This society was formed more than a year ago and has been growing steadily in favor. It has for its object the cultivation of the art of extemporaneous speaking. Debates and speeches are delivered without being written and without notes. The motto of the society is "Ars est artem celare," expressive of the truth that he who can speak with the most ease is the one who has taken the most pains to learn how. The members are all members of the literary societies.

INTER-NORMAL CONTEST.

Nine members of these societies entered the preliminary oratorical contest, the winner, Mr. A. L. Kibler, taking second honor in the Inter-Normal Contest held at Parkersburg in April, 1899.

PHYSICAL TRAINING.

At the present time no person questions the need of mental development, and all educators concede that intellectual force and moral qualities are intimately connected with a sound, wholesome body.

In accordance with this theory our students have, within the past year, organized an Athletic Association, which, in time, is intended to cover the whole field of Athletics. Through its own efforts, the Association has equipped one of the rooms in the lower part of the building for indoor exercise. The work is under the care of the Faculty, who are doing all they can to enable the athletic body to live and succeed, but we hope the Board of Regents may soon become interested in Physical Culture and assist in making our Association a permanent institution.

GLEE CLUB.

The Shepherd College Glee Club was organized as a medium through which the good old college songs, which occupy so prominent a place in school life, might be presented to the student body and the community. Membership in this organization is voluntary, but its numbers are limited, and applications for membership are acted upon by a competent committee. The reception accorded the club in its appearances before the public has assured its success and permanence.

SOCIAL LIFE.

In order to develop every side of the student's nature, and to make the period of school life a time to be pleasantly remembered for its social enjoyment, receptions are given from time to time through the year, both by teachers to students and by students to teachers. The genuine good feeling and mutual appreciation manifested on these occasions is a source of gratification to all friends of the school. A reception to the public has become a permanent feature of commencement week.

SPRING TERM.

In the Spring Term special classes are formed for teachers who enter the school to use the few weeks of the term to improve themselves. The reports from many of these teachers are very encouraging. Some have been led to take the entire course. These teachers are not placed under the care of inexperienced instructors, but the regular Faculty attend to their instruction. We heartily welcome teachers who wish to improve themselves.

DEMAND FOR TEACHERS.

During the present year we have had calls for teachers which we could not supply. The people are more and more appreciating the work of trained teachers. We are always glad to recommend our graduates to schools. We suggest to those who need teachers to apply early.

TO PARENTS AND GUARDIANS.

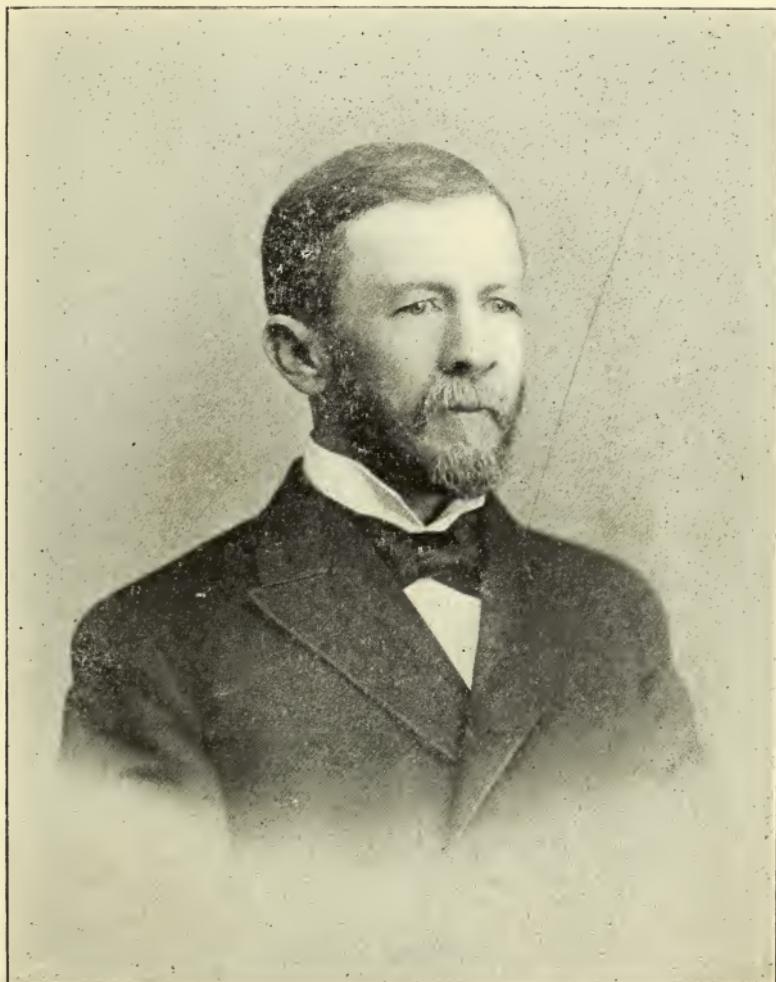

We earnestly ask the co-operation of parents and guardians in securing the best results for the coming year. The teacher may try to guard the student from evil, he may point out the path of right and duty, but without the help of those who are more closely related to that student his efforts will too often fail. See, then, that your child is regular and punctual in attendance ; that he spends a reasonable amount of time in the preparation of his school work ; that he is provided with funds to pay promptly all necessary expenses of his work. If the report is not satisfactory, diligently inquire into the cause thereof and vigorously second the teachers' effort to raise that standing.

Attention is called to the fact that all exercises begin promptly on the day stated in the calendar.

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

All graduates of the School are members of this Association. It has for its objects the promotion of the interests of the Normal School, the perpetuation of school-day friendships and the encouragement of general learning among its members. Shepherd College Alumni Association is an active, influential body of men and women numbering two hundred and sixty-three.

The incorporators and original Board of Trustees, as they appear in the charter, are "C. W. Andrews, A. R. Boteler, C. T. Butler, Geo. M. Beltzhoover, David Billmyer, Sam'l Knott, Henry Shepherd."

3. As far as practicable, male and female pupils shall be selected in equal proportion. In both Normal and Academic Departments male pupils must not be less than fourteen and female pupils not less than thirteen years of age.

4. Every certificate of appointment to the Normal Schools of this State shall be directed to the school which the applicant may desire to attend. When the County Superintendent has made such appointment, he shall at once notify the principal of the school to which the appointment was directed. The faculty of any normal school shall have power to vacate any appointment or certificate, for non-attendance, inaptitude to learn, immorality, or other good cause, but the student whose appointment was so vacated shall have the right to appeal to the President of the Board of Regents. In case a certificate is thus vacated, the principal shall notify the County Superintendent who issued the certificate, of such vacation; whereupon, if no appeal is taken to the State Superintendent within twenty days after the action of the faculty, he may make an appointment to fill the vacancy. Every County Superintendent shall keep a record in his office of all appointments made by him.

5. No applicant shall be eligible to an appointment to any of the Normal Schools unless the said applicant gives satisfactory evidence that he or she is of good moral character, and has a thorough knowledge of the elementary English branches, which must be completed before the regular normal course can be begun.

6. Each person appointed to a Normal School shall subscribe to the following declaration:

I, _____, declare that it is my purpose to become a teacher in the Free Schools of West Virginia; and I solemnly promise that if I am admitted to the State Normal School, or either of its branches, I will, within a reasonable time after completing the prescribed course of studies, spend one year in teaching in the Free Schools of this State, at the usual rates of compensation paid in the school where my services may be rendered.

This declaration shall be endorsed by some responsible person as follows:

In case of the failure of _____, the within named applicant, to comply with the provisions of this declaration, so far as it requires _____, within a reasonable time after graduation, to spend one year in teaching in the Free Schools of this State, I agree to pay, or cause to be paid, to the Treasurer of the Exective Committee of the School which —— may attend, tuition, at the regular rate, for such time as said applicant shall have been in attendance at said school.

Given under my hand, this —— day of ——, 189—.

7. Each graduate of a Normal School shall be allowed three years in which to comply with this agreement to teach one year in the Free Schools of the State; and if the said graduate does not comply within that time, the Executive Committee of the School from which the said student was graduated, shall at once proceed to collect from the bondsman or bondsmen the amount of tuition due the State from said student.

As soon as the graduate has complied with his agreement he shall notify the principal of the said school, and if no such notice is received within three years, the Executive Committee shall presume that the contract has not been complied with and shall proceed accordingly.

8. Each appointee shall deliver the certificate of appointment to the principal of the Normal School to which it is directed, and the principal shall thereupon file it with the records of the school, and enter the name of such person on the register of normal pupils.

9. Whenever the accommodations will admit, upon the payment of the required amount of tuition fees, students from this State or any other State may be admitted to the Normal School, whether they desire to become teachers or not.

10. The normal course shall consist of four years, which shall be designated respectively as the First Year, Second Year, Third Year and Fourth Year.

Each member of the Fourth Year class will be required to teach one of the regular classes, to be selected by the principal, one hour a week throughout the year.

11. Upon those who have completed the full normal course with an average standing of 85 per cent and not below 75 per cent on any one branch, and have been in actual attendance during the entire Third or Fourth Year, the Board of Regents will confer a diploma of graduation in the normal department. But before any certificate or diploma is granted, the principal of the school will be required to certify that those whom he recommends for graduation have fulfilled all the conditions and done all the work required for graduation.

"The entire Third or Fourth Year" shall mean in this connection one full year of three terms at one school.

12. Graduates of any of the normal schools who may desire to review the normal branches, may again receive appointments and pursue their studies upon the same conditions and under the same restrictions as if they were not graduates.

13. Students in attendance at any normal school may, upon request, be transferred by the principal of the school at which they are enrolled to any other normal school ; but no student from one normal school shall be admitted to another normal school unless he presents a certificate of good moral character and of honorable dismissal, and also a statement of the work he has done, the standing he has taken, and the work that remains to be done before he can be graduated ; all of which shall be certified to by the principal of the school from which he comes.

14. The academic course shall cover all the requirements for admission to the freshman class in the classical course of the West Virginia University, and shall be as nearly as possible the same as the course in the preparatory department of that institution.

Upon those who have completed the full academic course with an average standing of 85 per cent, and not below 75 per cent on any one branch, and have been in actual attendance at the school from which they expect to graduate, one full year, which shall be the last or next to the last year of the course, the State Superintendent of Free Schools will confer a diploma of graduation which will admit its holder to the freshman class of the State University. One full year in this connection shall mean one full year of three terms at one school.

15. The school year for all the normal schools shall begin on Wednesday, falling on or nearest the 15th of September, and shall be divided into three terms. The fall term shall begin on Wednesday on or nearest the 15th of September and shall close twelve weeks from the following Friday. The winter term shall begin on the next Tuesday after the close of the fall term and shall close at the end of the twelfth week, including the opening week. The spring term shall begin on the next Tuesday following the close of the winter term and shall close within the thirteenth week, with the regular commencement, which shall be determined by the Board of Regents from year to year.

The holiday vacation for all the schools shall begin on the same day and end on the same day. That is to say :

If Christmas falls on Sunday, vacation shall begin on Friday, the 23d, and end on Tuesday evening, January 3d.

If Christmas falls on Monday, vacation shall begin on Friday, the 22d, and end on Wednesday, January 3d.

If Christmas falls on Tuesday, vacation shall begin Friday noon, the 21st, and end on Wednesday, January 2d.

If Christmas falls on Wednesday, vacation shall begin on Saturday, the 21st, and end on Saturday, January 4th.

If Christmas falls on Thursday, vacation shall begin on Tuesday noon, the 23d, and end on Saturday, January 3d.

If Christmas falls on Friday, vacation shall begin on Wednesday, the 23d, and end on Monday, January 4th.

If Christmas falls on Saturday, vacation shall begin on Thursday, the 23d, and end on Tuesday, January 4th.

16. The rates of tuition for pay students shall be as follows :
Normal Course, $2.00 per month.

Academic Course, $2.00 per month.

17. All students will be required to pay an incidental fee of $1.50 per term.

18. All fees must be paid in advance and all students in attendance for part of a month will be required to pay full tuition for that month, except in the case of pupils who enter after the middle of any month. These will be required to pay tuition for only half of the month in which they enter.

19. The Principal and his assistants shall be known as the Faculty, which shall meet at the call of the Principal.

20. The Principal, in addition to his duties as instructor, shall be the executive officer of the school, and shall sign all reports and other official papers. He shall have general supervision over the school, and shall assign to the assistant teachers the classes and studies which they are to teach, and he shall be held responsible for the management of the school. For just cause he may suspend any one of his assistants until an investigation can be made by the Board of Regents. To the pupils he shall assign the studies which they are to pursue, and shall determine what tests shall be required to complete said studies. He shall fix the order and methods of all examinations, and the scale of grading to be used in the school. He shall determine how often reports of scholarship and attendance shall be made and shall keep a permanent record of the deportment and standing of each student.

He shall also collect all tuition and incidental fees in advance and pay them to the treasurer of the executive committee. The Principal shall have full control over the grounds and buildings during school hours and all school exercises and shall have full authority to prohibit all loafing, loitering or trespassing of any kind and to take such action as he may think necessary to prevent the same.

21. The principal shall, as soon as practicable each year, make out a classification of the pupils, according to their respective studies, and in due season, publish the same in a catalogue, with such other general information and announcements pertaining to the school as may be of public interest. He shall also furnish to the Regents a list of the candidates for graduation, designating the paying from the non-paying pupils, and giving the age and grade of standing of each candidate, with the names of studies in which they have been examined.

In the absence of the Principal, the first assistant shall act as Principal.

22. The faculty shall have authority to prevent both sexes from boarding at the same house; to make such special rules for their government as may be necessary and to require those who keep boarders or rent rooms to students, to exercise such supervision over them as shall be to the best interest of the school; but the faculty shall have direct control and authority over all students boarding in the dormitories connected with the Normal Schools, and shall under no circumstances allow any one except students in actual attendance or teachers to board or room at said dormitories.

23. The faculty shall establish all necessary rules for the government and control of their school, and shall have authority to administer such punishments as they may deem expedient. They shall have authority to suspend students for any time not exceeding one year, or to dismiss them permanently when such action is deemed necessary for the proper government of the school; the right of appeal to the President of the Board being reserved to the party suspended or dismissed. But in no case shall any student be suspended or expelled until he has been given a reasonable time and opportunity for making his defense before the faculty.

24. Each student shall attend the daily sessions of the school unless excused by the principal.

25. The daily sessions shall be opened with such devotional and other exercises as the faculty may establish.

26. When studies have once been assigned a student they will stand until changed or modified by the principal. Each regular student shall have at least three studies, which he shall not change or modify without permission of the principal. Each normal student shall take the course as laid down.

27. At the time of enrolling each pupil shall sign the following obligation :

I, _____, hereby enroll myself as a student of the _____ State Normal School, and promise that I will at all times times be obedient and respectful to my teachers, and observant of all rules and regulations of the school.

Signed : _____.

28. The Executive Committee shall organize at the first meeting after the first of July by electing from their number a President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, and the Secretary shall immediately notify the State Superintendent of Free Schools of such action.

29. The Executive Committee shall not overdraw any fund to pay an indebtedness against another fund and shall not expend any of the fund available annually for Library and Apparatus except on the order of the faculty, who are hereby given authority to expend said fund for such books and apparatus as they think necessary.

30. The Executive Committee shall exercise proper care over the buildings, grounds and property of the school ; keep them in good repair and condition, and see that the school rooms are properly warmed, ventilated and kept clean and comfortable.

31. The Executive Committee may, with the full and free consent of the principal, allow the buildings to be used for religious or educational meetings, but they shall never, even with the full consent of the principal, allow the said buildings to be used for political or other meetings save and except only those hereinbefore mentioned.

32. The Executive Committee shall audit all accounts against the school, determine all matter of expenditure not provided for by law or otherwise and order such payments as are necessary, from moneys placed in their hands by the Board of Regents and from incidental fees, and in all emergencies they shall exercise such executive authority in the absence of the Regents as the law permits.

33. The Secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the committee ; shall enter therein all moneys received by the Treasurer or Executive Committee, and at any time, when so requested, he shall allow his records to be examined by the Principal, the Executive Committee, or the Board of Regents.

34. The Treasurer shall receive all moneys appropriated by the State or collected for tuition and incidental fees, and shall give his receipt for the same. He shall place the amount received from incidental fees to the credit of the contingent fund and shall keep a separate account for the tuition money which shall be paid out only on order of the Board of Regents. He shall deposit all money coming into his possession for the school in some convenient bank, in the name of the Executive Committee, and no amount whatever shall be drawn therefrom except upon a check signed by both Secretary and Treasurer. The Treasurer shall, on or before the first day of August of each year, inform the President of the Board of Regents of the bank in which he has made this deposit.

35. The Treasurer shall keep, in a book provided for that purpose, a separate account for each fund, and shall during the week following the commencement exercises of his school, make to the Board of Regents a complete itemized statement of all receipts and expenditures, having in such statement a separate account with each fund.
